

5th Grade Summer BINGO

Name: _____

Help plant a garden. Write the step-by-step process on a piece of paper. Attach the paper to this sheet.	Take a virtual/real tour of a nature center or historical center. Write two paragraphs about something you learned.	Email a 6th-grade teacher and write three paragraphs telling them... 3 things you're excited about, 3 things you're nervous about, and 3 things you want to learn	Read a book of your choice. What was the title? _____ _____ _____	Take a virtual or real tour of a zoo/aquarium/animal exhibit. What was your favorite animal? _____
6th grade REQUIRED Jack Gantos reading assignment. More information from the 6th-grade teacher to come.	6th grade REQUIRED 40 minutes of iReady reading a week.	6th grade REQUIRED 40 minutes of iReady math a week.	Take a hike	Invite a friend over and invent a new game.
Create a building out of materials at your house. Take a picture and print it out.	Design a scavenger hunt, and attach the clues/map.	Write a persuasive essay to your parents about a new pet you want. Attach the essay.	Write three goals you want to accomplish in 6th grade. Hang them in your room.	Interview someone important to you. Attach the interview questions/responses.

Dear Families,

This summer BINGO sheet is a fun way to keep your child learning throughout the summer. Since they are going into 6th grade, some of the BINGO squares are REQUIRED!

Here is how it works:

- Complete the 3 required BINGO squares for 6th grade.
*More information on Jack Gantos reading will come!
- Complete 4 other BINGO squares.
- Attach evidence and turn evidence and this sheet to your child's 6th-grade homeroom teacher.
- Everything is due back by September 7th.

Sincerely,
 5th and 6th Grade Teams